Implementing business aspects in curriculum

“Entrepreneurship education as a transversal contribution to the different subjects and non-disciplinary areas that are involved in activities or projects, developed in a way that motivate students to actively participate to change their area of action as citizens.”

Implementing business aspects in curriculum

- ▶ Help students to:
 - ▶ Plan, organize, analyze, communicate, implement, compose, evaluate and memorize.
 - ▶ Develop projects and their implementation.
 - ▶ Work, cooperatively, in a team and with flexibility.
 - ▶ Identify personal terms as strong and weak areas.
 - ▶ Act proactively and respond positively to change.
 - ▶ Accept risks
